

Prayer Track

FEBRUARY – MARCH 2021

WELCOME TO PRAYER TRACK, offering you key prayer points each week to help you join hundreds of others in praying for the ministry of Waverley Abbey, and for our wider Christian family and world.

22–28 MAR

Families

- Pray for some specific families you know, asking God to bless them.
- Lift up children all around the UK who have had their schooling disrupted this year. Ask God to comfort them.
- Consider families who have lost loved ones recently and pray for God's peace to be upon them.
- Ask God to strengthen marriages and thank Him how many couples have signed up for things such as The Marriage Course.
- Pray for parents who have been working from home whilst also trying to help children with schoolwork.

29 MAR – 4 APR

Waverley Abbey Resources

- An updated version of Simply Church by Sim Dendy was recently released, with a new chapter on the Church in crisis. Thank God for this resource and ask Him to use it widely.
- As Patrick Regan's latest book Bouncing Forwards is released, ask God to place it in the hands of people who it will especially help.
- Thank God for Jen Baker's latest book, Unwavering. Ask that God would use it to prompt people to live wholeheartedly for Him in the choices they make.
- Praise God for the dedicated team in Waverley Abbey Resources.
- Thank God for all the people who use the resources created.

WEEKEND

Lord, we ask You to bless families all around the world and help them to know You and draw close to You each day. Amen.

WEEKEND

Father, please direct more and more people to all that Waverley Abbey Resources offer. Amen.

1–7 FEB

Waverley Abbey College staff

- Pray for the registry staff as they continue to make arrangements for remote learning.
- Pray for the College tutors, in their online lecturing and supporting of students in their training.
- Praise God for the ways in which the College is able to use technology at this time.
- Thank God for the expertise He has given the course leaders at the College, training students to help others.
- Ask God to give wisdom to all those making decisions for when onsite learning will recommence.

WEEKEND

Lord, we thank You for the dedication of all the staff at Waverley Abbey College. We pray that they find their roles fulfilling and know that they are serving You. Amen.

8–14 FEB

Mental health

- Lift up anyone you know who is struggling with their mental health.
- Thank Jesus for how He knows what it is to experience anguish and is close to those experiencing the same.
- Ask God to direct more people towards the resources and courses offered by Waverley Abbey.
- Pray that God would help people to recognise their emotional and mental health as well as their physical health.
- Thank God for charities like Kintsugi Hope, who offer wellbeing groups to support people in their emotional and mental health.

WEEKEND

Father God, we know that You care about mental health. Help us as a society to reflect more of this. Amen.

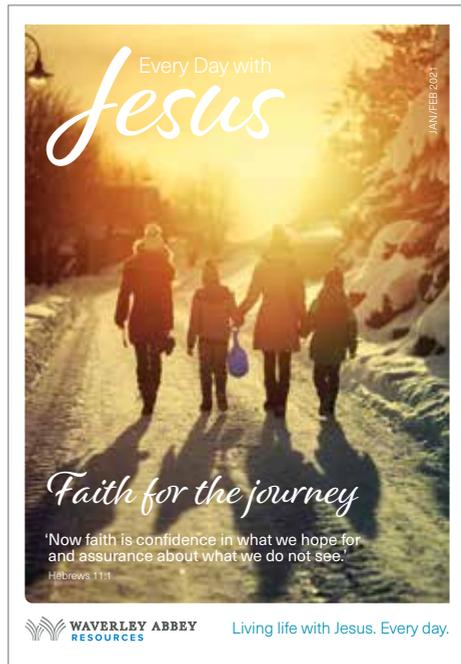

15–21 FEB

Every Day With Jesus readers

- Praise God for the way in which new readers have taken up reading Every Day with Jesus.
- Ask God to inspire and bless Micha Jazz as he writes this notes.
- Seek God's input for anyone who you could bless with a copy of Every Day with Jesus.
- There are people all around the world reading these wonderful Bible reading notes. Thank God for them and ask Him to speak into their individual situations.
- Thank God for technology meaning that more people can read Every Day with Jesus.

WEEKEND

God, we are so grateful for how Every Day with Jesus has impacted many lives over the years. Help more people to come across these Bible reading notes. Amen.

22–28 FEB

The UK Government

- Ask God to guide our leaders as they respond to Covid-19.
- Pray that important legislation surrounding things other than the pandemic would not be ignored.
- With many people now facing financial struggles, ask God to speak to policy makers and encourage them to think of these people as a priority.
- Ask God to help leaders work together for the good of the people they serve.
- Lift up Christians within the government and ask God to give them courage and strength.

WEEKEND

Father, we know more than ever the effects of the decisions made in government on our daily lives. Give those making decisions strength, compassion and wisdom over the coming months. Amen.

1–7 MAR

Local churches

- Ask God to continue to inspire church leaders with fresh and exciting ideas.
- Pray that people who have become Christians over lockdown will be able to find and connect with churches.
- Consider your own church leaders and thank God for them and what they do.
- Lift up the people who are working hard to making online services happen each week.
- Thank God for the ways in which Christians and local churches have stepped in to help those most in need over the last year especially.

WEEKEND

Lord Jesus, we love You and we love the Church. Help Christians to stay connected to local churches and continue praying for our leaders. Amen.

8–14 MAR

The NHS

- Thank God for the wonderful provision of the NHS.
- With many NHS workers having been under so much pressure, ask God to give them peace and strength.
- Pray that the NHS would receive the funding and resources that it needs to be able to operate at its best.
- Lift up those currently in hospital and ask for God to bring healing.
- Praise God for the faith of staff, patients and chaplains. Pray that they would be beacons of light.

WEEKEND

A year into the pandemic, we ask you to continue to help the NHS, Lord. Be with those on the frontline and let them know of the hope they can have in You. Amen.

15–21 MAR

Waverley Abbey College students

- Thank God for the heart of the students at the College as they seek education in order to be able to better help people.
- Pray that students wouldn't be fatigued by the online learning, but would remain energised and enthusiastic.
- Pray that those who are considering courses in Counselling and Spiritual Formation, especially in light of the last year, would hear about the College.
- Ask God to help students in their practice as they support others.
- Praise God for the wonderful community of students that exists within the College.

WEEKEND

Lord God, thank You for the commitment of the students at the College. Bless them in their studies during this time. Amen.
